

Town Hall, Police Station and Town Court Closed to Public Until Further Notice

Updated April 3, 2020

In order to comply with the federal and state guidelines to slow the spread of the Coronavirus, the Avon Town Hall, Police Station and Town Court will be closed to the public until further notice. The closure will continue based on guidelines issued by the Center for Disease Control or the State of Indiana. Updates will be posted at www.avongov.org and social media.

All public meetings have also been cancelled until April 6.

“The Town Council wants our staff and public to remain safe and free of the coronavirus, “ said Council President Greg Zusan, “ and the closure of the Town Hall, Police Station and Town Court in accordance with federal guidelines will help us accomplish this goal.”

Core services of the Town will continue with non public safety staff working from home during the closure. Police officers will continue to provide 24 hour protection of our community. Non emergency police calls will be responded to by phone or email when appropriate. Building permit submittals and building inspections will occur by appointment.

Residents may call the Town Hall at 317-272-0948 to leave a message and a staff member will return the call. Residents can also use the dial by name feature at 317-272-0948 to leave a message for a staff member who will return the call. Residents that need help finding social and community resources may send an email to help@avongov.org or leave a message at 317-272-0948 with the Planning Department.

For police inquiries, residents may leave a message at 317-272-4485.
